

waldwick

A family-friendly town

Waldwick is a friendly community full of wonderful opportunities for families to connect and enjoy time together.

Strike up the Band

The Waldwick Community Band is a 60-year-old volunteer music organization that offers free concerts to the public, including those at the Village School and in the summer months at the Waldwick Oval Amphitheater.

Waldwick's Music Parents Association, meanwhile, is dedicated to supporting performing arts programs at Waldwick Middle and High schools.

History

All Aboard is a group of volunteers who have restored the Erie Railroad Signal Tower (built in the 1890s) in town, and are planning more rail restoration projects in the future.

Get Outside

Borough Park on Pine Street is a local favorite, with its playground, bike path, picnic area and stream. Other parks include Emmet Park and Veterans Park.

EMMET PARK

Women's Club

The Waldwick Women's Club is a nonprofit organization that had its start as the Newcomers Club. It's now open to both new and long-time residents.

Play Ball

The Bergen County Wildcats, based in Waldwick, are made up of special-needs players from around Bergen County. Athletes compete in a variety of sports, including volleyball, floor hockey, bowling, basketball and softball.

BOUNCE SAFARI

Athletes of all ages enjoy Superdome Sports and its 79,000 square feet of playing fields and running track, all under a climate-controlled dome. Golfers (and amateurs) appreciate Greenhouse Golf with its alpine-themed mini golf and its PGA Tour simulators.

Fun Time

Bounce Safari, a (201) Family Reader's Choice winner, offers a bouncing good time at its indoor inflatable playground.

Good Eats

Family-friendly dining is available at several popular eateries, including Village Grille; Nellie's Place and Matthews Diner and Restaurant.
